

JAGSONPAL LAUNCHES WOMEN'S HEALTH WEBSITE – WWW.MYSAKHI.IN

Aims to raise awareness and encourage better management of women's health

Gurugram, Haryana – May 10, 2024 – Jagsonpal Pharmaceuticals Limited, one of the leading pharmaceutical companies in women's health, today unveiled a new website www.mysakhi.in as part of its commitment to improving women's health across all life stages, from menarche to menopause.

Website Features:

- Educational Content: offers comprehensive resources on different life stages of women's health and associated management options
- Expert Guidance: Delivers expert advice on health management and access to essential health tools including diagnostic lab tests, home testing kits and medicines
- Community Engagement: provides access to online support community groups
- Personalized Health Plan: Enables users to create health plans tailored to their specific needs

This website is an extension of the ongoing CSR initiatives promoting women's health and hygiene. The Company has already made significant impact by building sanitation facilities at girls' schools in Punjab, Haryana and Uttarakhand, as well as promoting menstrual hygiene education and awareness.

This website shall initially focus on menopause with public awareness programs led by experts from the medical fraternity who will provide education and create awareness on the management of menopause. These sessions will include live interactive virtual discussions, the recordings of which will also be available on the website for wider access.

Since its inception, Jagsonpal has pursued its goal of becoming a strong, ethical player in the Indian pharmaceutical sector. With health, science and service at the core, the company has established a strong presence across the country, building a portfolio of leading and well-reputed brands in its focus areas of women's health and orthopaedics. The company remains committed to delivering maximum value to its consumers – both medical fraternity and patients, fostering enduring relationships and making significant contributions to the industry.
