Jagsonpal's CSR Initiative - 'MySakhi' strengthens its Women's Healthcare Management Interventions

Gurugram, Haryana – August 5, 2024 – Jagsonpal Pharmaceuticals Limited, a leading pharmaceutical company in India with a strong focus on women's health has announced the inauguration of three more toilet complexes constructed at Uttarakhand and Punjab, as part of their CSR initiative along with menstrual hygiene programs aimed at benefiting the girl students from Government Girls Inter College, Fazilpur Mahrola, Rudrapur and Government Girls Higher Primary School, Udham Singh Nagar, Rudrapur at Uttarakhand and Girls Senior Secondary School, Shaheed Bhagat Singh Nagar, Naawan Shahar at Punjab.

The Company has already constructed multiple such sanitation facilities equipped with a sanitary napkin vending machine and incinerator at various locations including girls' schools in Punjab & Haryana and conducted programs around menstrual hygiene education and awareness for adolescent girls.

The Company is actively engaged in its CSR initiatives under the umbrella of 'MySakhi', focusing on providing a comprehensive environment that fosters well-being and empowerment for women of all age groups, from adolescence to menopause. Various programs and activities under the 'MySakhi' banner include community engagement, virtual educational sessions, expert guidance and resources supporting women's health and wellness.

"Our CSR initiatives are centered around Jagsonpal's commitment to empowering women by providing comprehensive support for their well-being and healthcare," stated Prithi Kochhar, Director, Jagsonpal Pharma. He added that "in the coming years, the Company will continue to strengthen its focus on women's well-being through the 'MySakhi' initiatives".

The website www.mysakhi.in, that began with focus on menopause, has now expanded to include health awareness for women of reproductive age. It is regularly hosting virtual educational programs led by medical experts to educate and raise awareness about the various stages of women's health and the associated management options. In the past three months, ten educational programs have reached an audience of over 5,000 people from across India.

The webinar series titled 'Menopause Dialogues', is led by well-known Gynecologist and Menopause Specialist, Dr. Ragini Agrawal, General Secretary Elect of Indian Menopause Society (IMS). She has been in dialogues with Past Presidents of IMS and State chapters from across India, namely, Prof. Dr. HP Pattanaik, Dr. Jignesh Shah, Prof. Dr. N. Hephzibah Kirubamani, Dr. Sunila Khandelwal and Dr. Shashi Shrivastava.

Sessions relating to health awareness around reproductive age were hosted by Dr. Mitra Saxena, Chairperson Practical Obstetric Committee of FOGSI, and Dr. J.B. Sharma, Professor & Unit Head of Obstetrics & Gynecology at AIIMS New Delhi.

All the sessions consist of live interactive virtual discussions, and recordings of the sessions are available on the website, www.mysakhi.in, for broader accessibility.
